RE: Recommendation

Dear Andrea:

You have asked us for a letter recommending you for forensic accounting services in connection with family law matters. We happily provide you this letter intending it to be a strong recommendation. Your services with us have been exemplary.

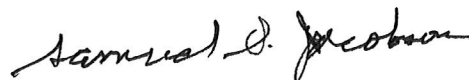

You have been both conscientious and competent in your dealings with us. We would be pleased to continue working with you if you were going to remain in our area. We are sorry you are leaving.

One of your strengths is self-sufficiency. You are adept at recognizing issues independently and addressing them. You are a self-starter, not requiring a lot of handholding and direction. This is a definite plus.

Another of your strengths is responsiveness. We have found you to be prompt and timely in meeting our requests. You additionally have been pleasant to work with. These are other definite pluses.

You may feel free to use this letter in dealing with prospective clients. If further information is needed from us, please feel free to request it.

Yours very truly,

Samuel S. Jacobson
