TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This letter is to recommend the services of Andrea Anthony and Changing Tides CPA. Ms. Anthony is extremely well versed in financial matters involved in dissolution and post-dissolution actions.

Ms. Anthony has assisted several of my clients with budgeting, analyzing income and expenses for establishing alimony, preparing tax returns, reviewing and explaining tax returns, and establishing income for purposes of calculating child support. I have found her to be helpful during the entire process from pre-filing up and through mediation.

I would highly recommend Ms. Anthony to assist you and your clients in any aspect of a dissolution or post-dissolution matter.

If I can provide any further information, please contact me at 904-824-9402.

Sincerely,

Andrew Morgan
